To a
sweet and happy girl that just met her
year next year or
you next year or
the summer
if it was fun
have fun that summer
Wiggle

Wendy,
High! What's going on! Will
it's been terrific
knowing such a crazy girl! Your
such a sweetie too.
You better keep in touch over the summer or else. Thanks for party'ing w/ me! Where had some RADICAL THING
let's party this summer for sure! Good luck
w/ Chris! Call

wendy

Just got to know you this year And I think your rally cute with a rally Great personality too bad you didn't go to the Rush concert it was the best. Stop by my house anytime and rap with me or give me a call 735-1588. well have as much sex as you can this summer And I'll see you at some parties or at the beach. And I like those tite green pants you were so cruz by And rap with me some time well see you later Love Evan

wendy I hope

I can see ya in

The park this summer

and Party with you

To I still think

you rad but and

I want to bite

it see ya around

and around and around

and

wendie, (U)

Hi, how are you?
well we made it
through this year, I am so glad that the

two of us are friends. We've been through a lot
2-gether, remember
that big fight
with patrick.

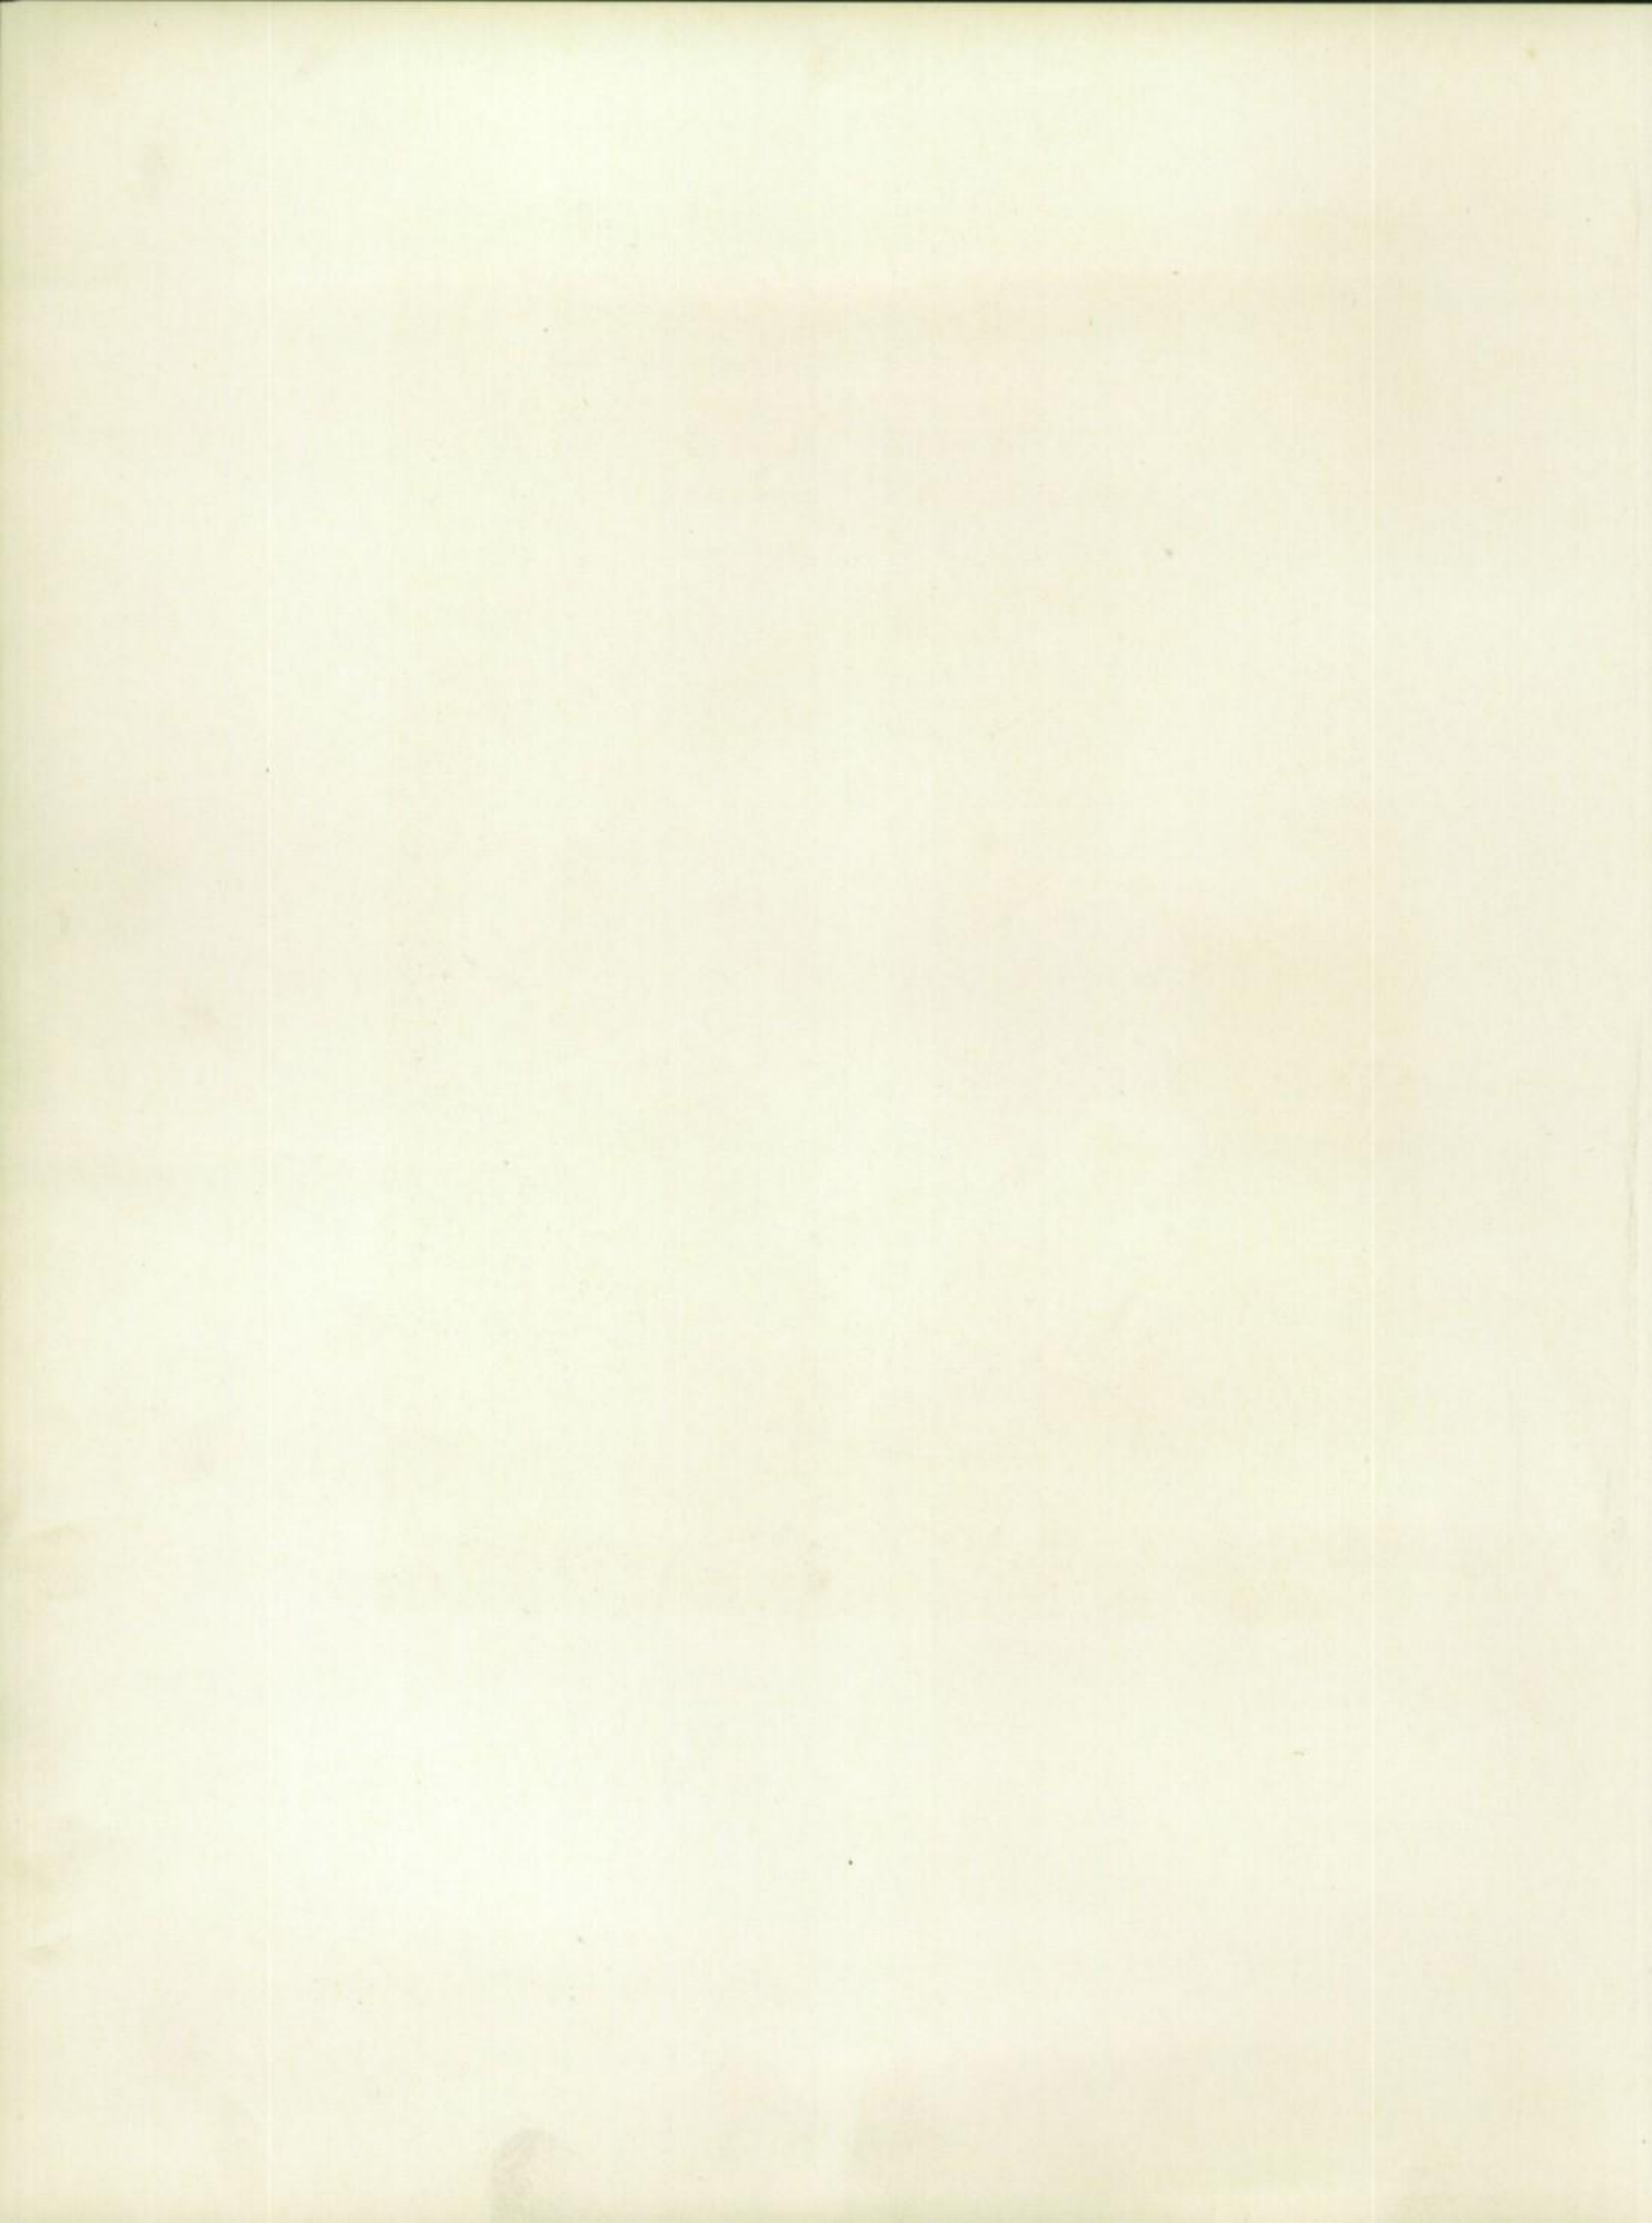

Thank for being
there all the time when I needed you, I hope that you will call me a lot of the summer so we can do

things, wends.

your a great friend
and I hope

everything works out
about your dad for the best!

I love
you with all my friend
heart.

■ Come with us while we build our rainbow ■

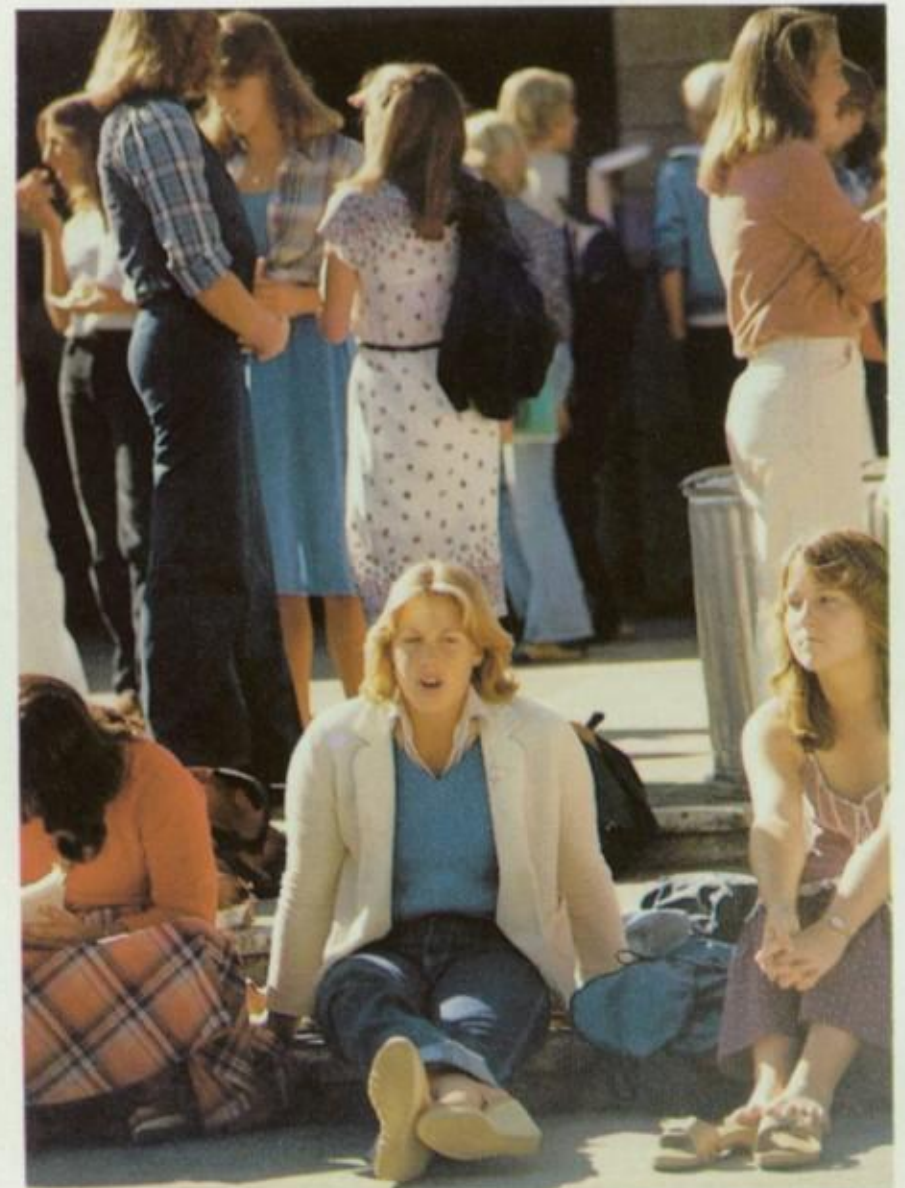

— Through time, and troubles —

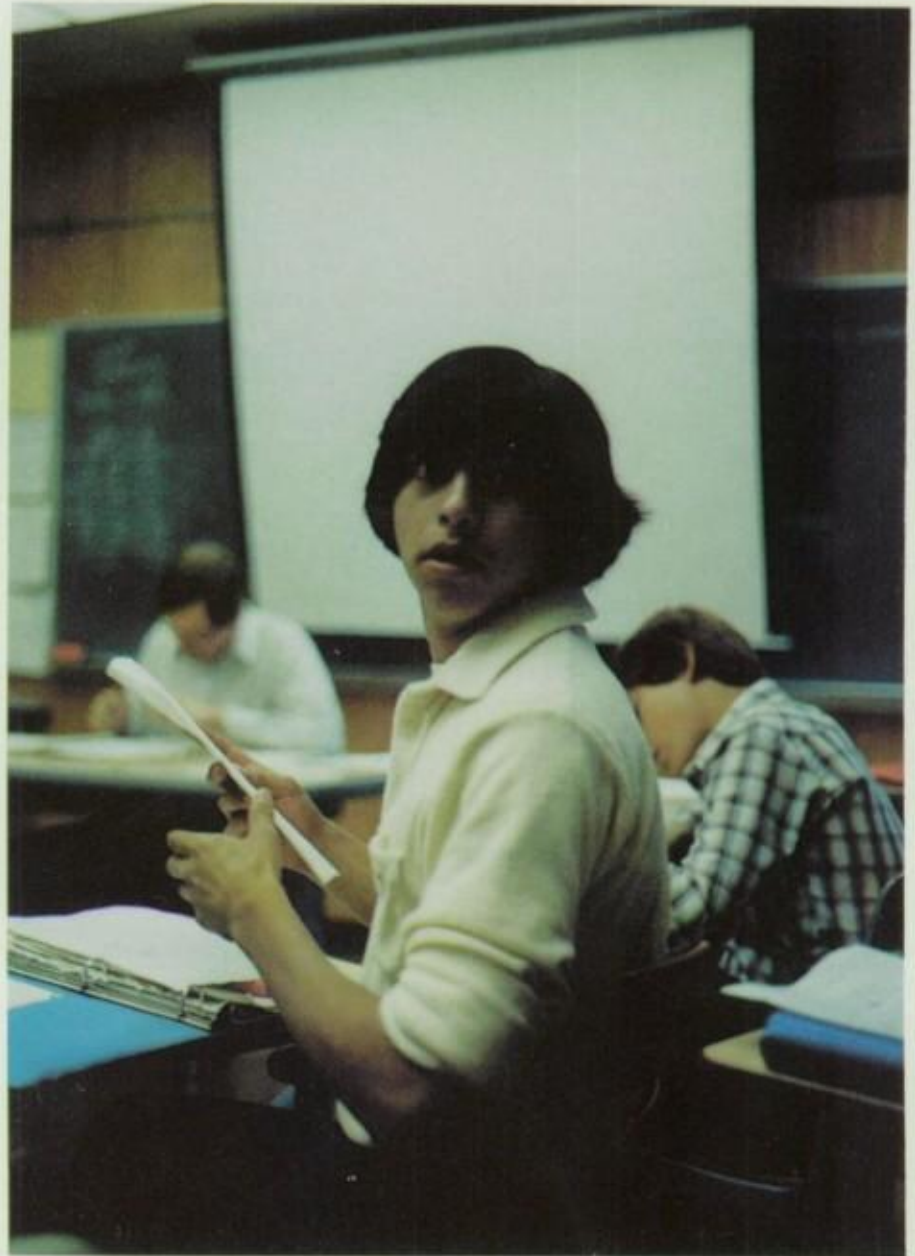

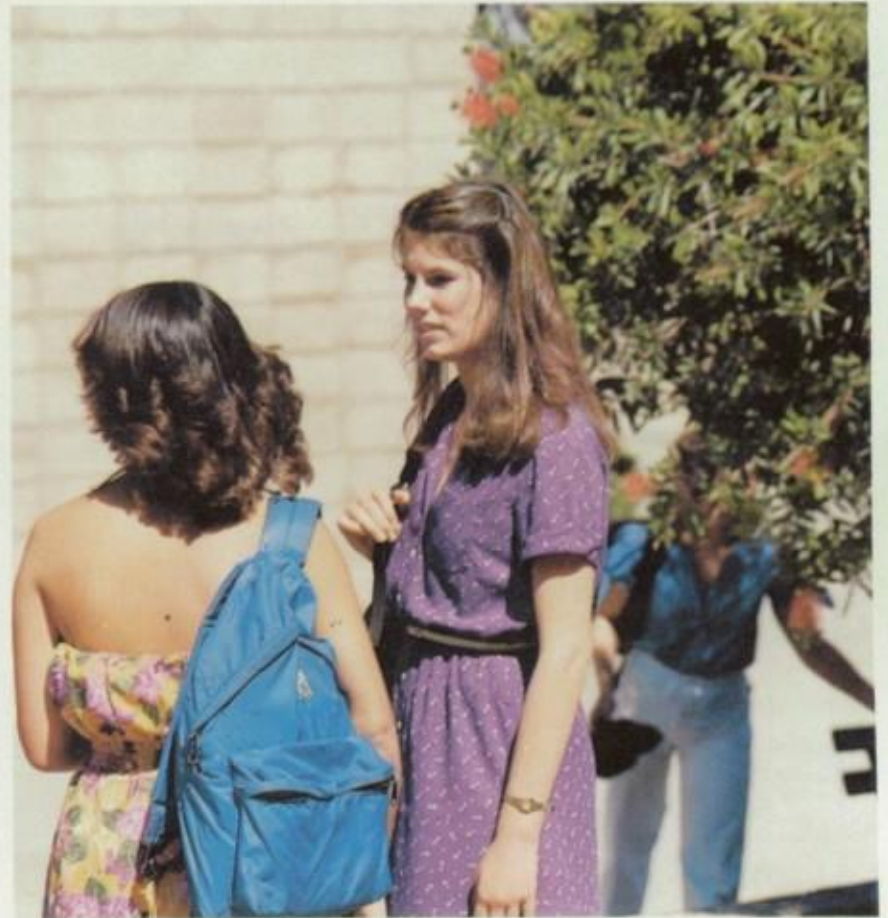

— and struggles within —

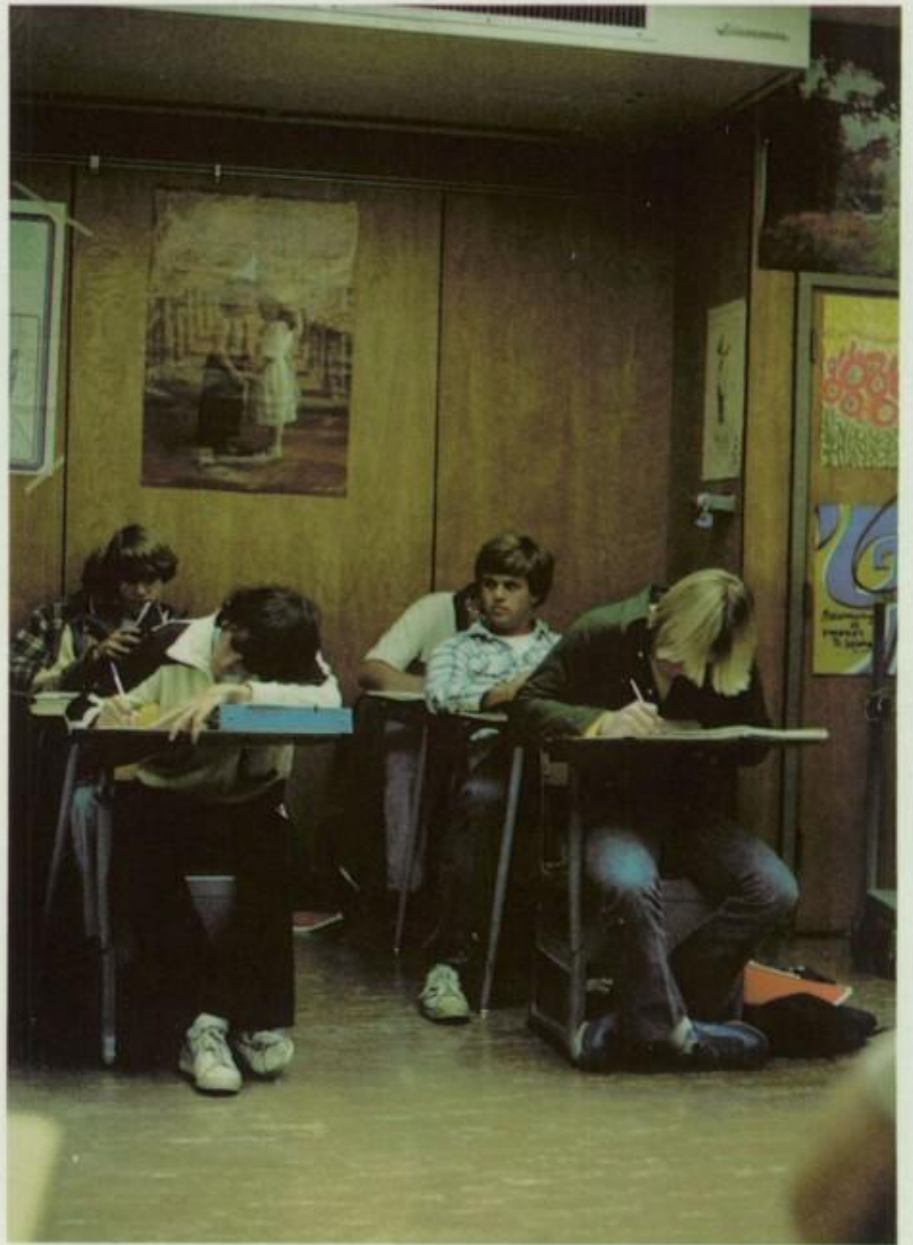

— We experience ecstasy and demise —

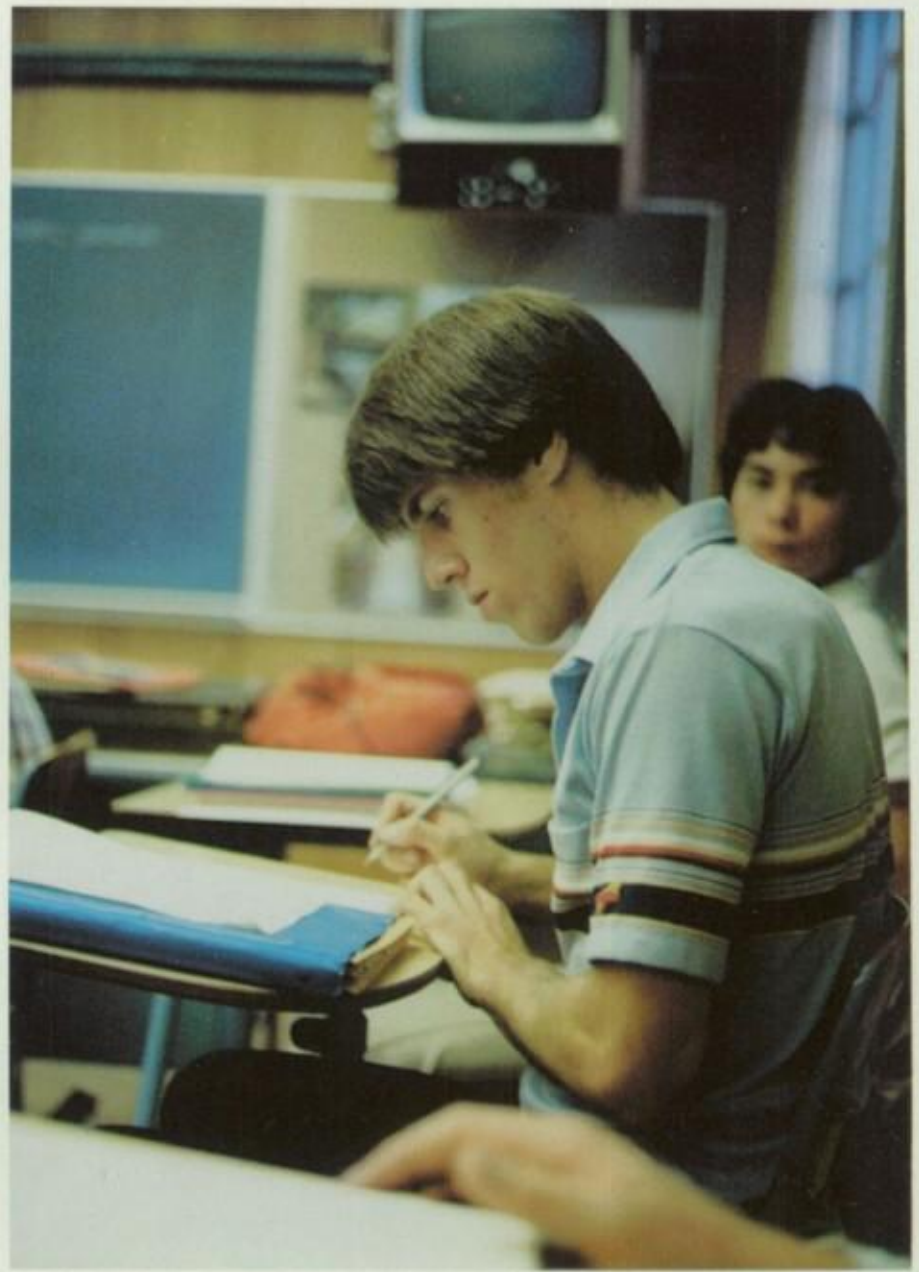

— But unity and effort prevails —

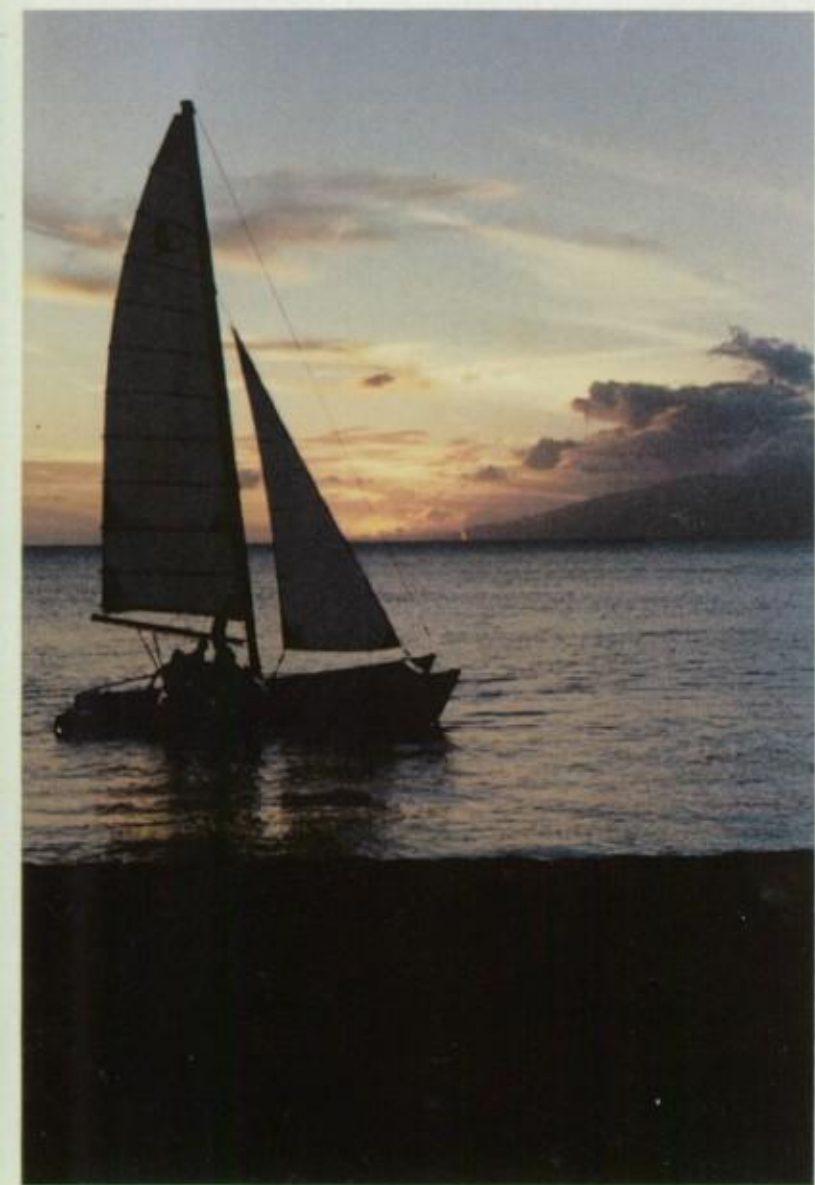

— Our rainbow is now complete —

■ Now you strive forth and show us the way ■

CANDID SENIORS: Just a few parting glances at the awesome Class of 1981.

From Left, Pres. Keith Thesing, Sec. Mimi Mc Crillis, Social Man. Lynn Crenshaw, Tres. Rick Borovoy, V.P. John Burns

The class of 1984 sailed into the year with the theme of the new movie "Popeye." Breaking the annual frosh tradition, they didn't toilet paper the quad. The famous "Hollywood" sign in the Hollywood hills was their float.

Beach bums invaded the quad on sophomore spirit day. The class of 1983 successfully decorated the quad and featured their own beach. The sophs hung many posters relating to their ocean theme. Their float depicted "Jaws."

Homestead Spirit Sneak Preview . . .

Homestead took on Hollywood as a theme this year. Freshmen started the week sailing with Popeye. Sophomores enjoyed a day at the 'beach'. Juniors thought pink with a tribute to Peter Sellers and the Pink Panther. And at the end of the week the seniors presented the stars of '81.

Being an exchange student and going to Homestead H.S. is a lot of fun and a great experience! In my own country the school especially the senior year is very hard and full of homework. Here the school is much easier, with a lot of activities.

For me, this year was a year of excitement and only the first few months were hard because of the adjustments. But after I had lived here for a while, the expectations turned into actual reality and then into a nice and memorable experience. This experience though, has changed my life and my feelings about myself and the world.

I wish someday I'll come back to see all the people and the things I'll leave when I'll go back to Greece. Well, yassou!! (bye-bye in Greek)

I think I'm one of the luckiest Y.F.U. students this year. I've lived with a great family and I went to a super high school. I think I will get homesick when I'm back in Holland. I will miss the many activities and American customs. Especially my hockey and soccer team gave me fine memories to take back home and together we always had a good time. In both teams I learned a great deal about sport and an American way of having fun.

Y.F.U. told me and other students that we had to adjust to the American style of living, but I think we have to adjust ourselves when we go home. Thanks Homestead for giving me such a great year. I will never forget the things I learned and the fun I had with all my new friends. I hope that some of you have learned something about Holland and that you don't think we're still wearing wooden shoes and live in windmills.

The only sad thing during my stay was my weight. I gained so much this year by eating junkfood, Mexican, pizzas, Mc Donalds that I'm afraid nobody will recognize me when I will arrive in my own country. But, it was worth the experience.

Tonia Teliou

Karen Seibuechler

It was the first time in the U.S. for me, but I was surprised how quickly I learned to like everything so much! This year was great, and I hope you enjoyed it with me even though you had to endure all my faults: needing a ride all the time, always being late, mixing up English words, lending "things" to strangers in the locker room! I learned a lot! Finally I fell in love with California and it's people, especially from Homestead, even with the teachers! Also I liked the tennis courts, I was never as happy after a tournament as I was after C.C.S. Thanks all my friends for crossing their fingers for me and helping me enjoy it so much.

Altogether everything was very different from my home in Germany but I'm gonna miss it a lot when I'm over there! Maybe so much that I'll come back!

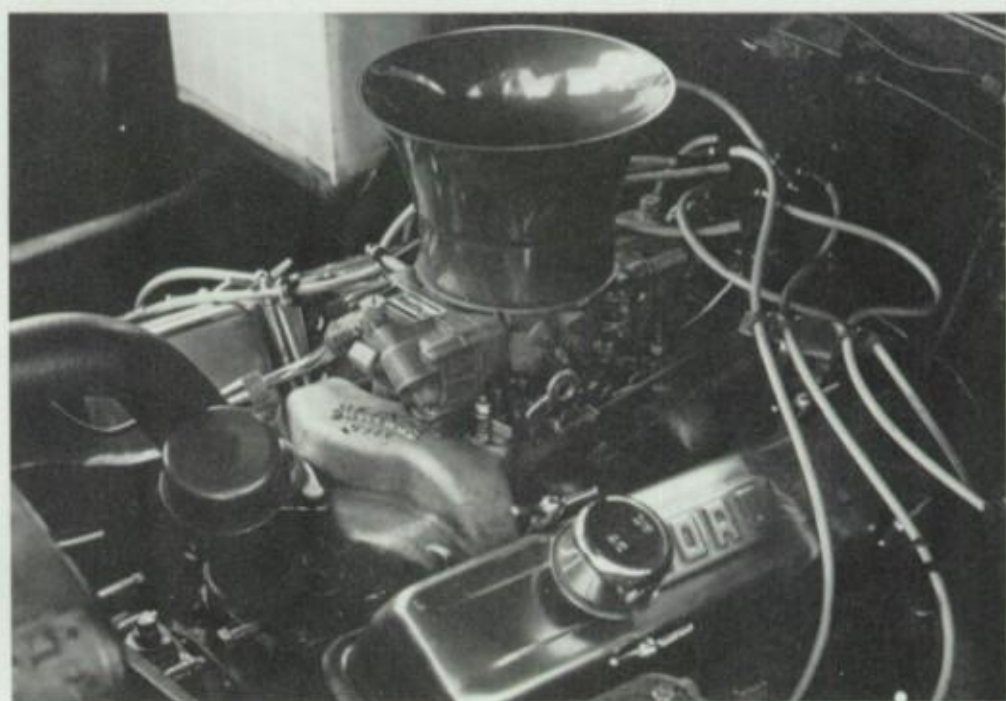

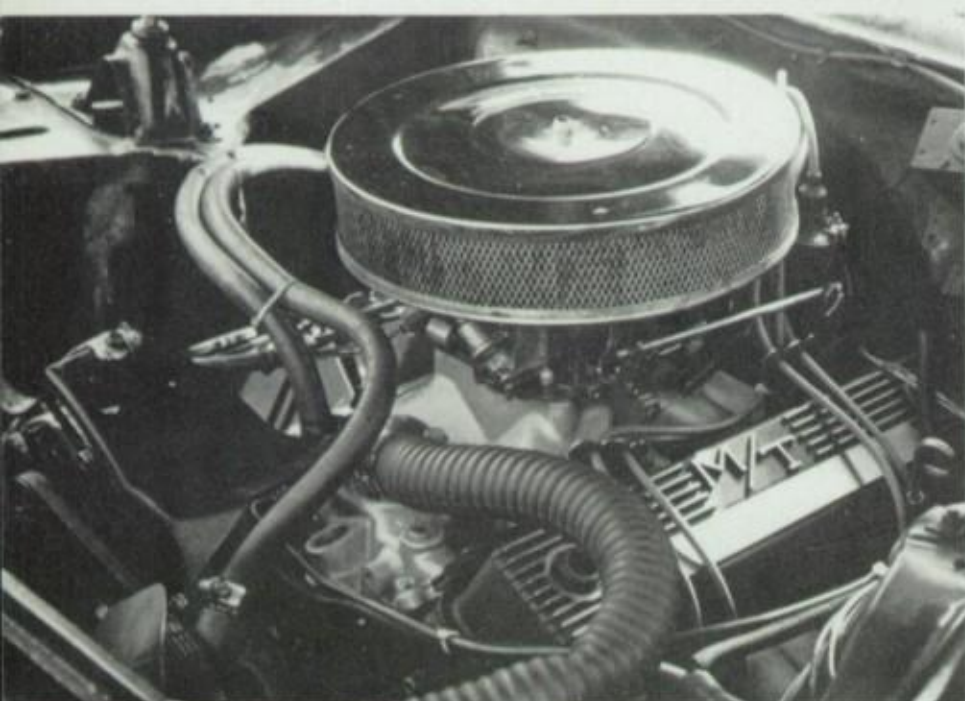

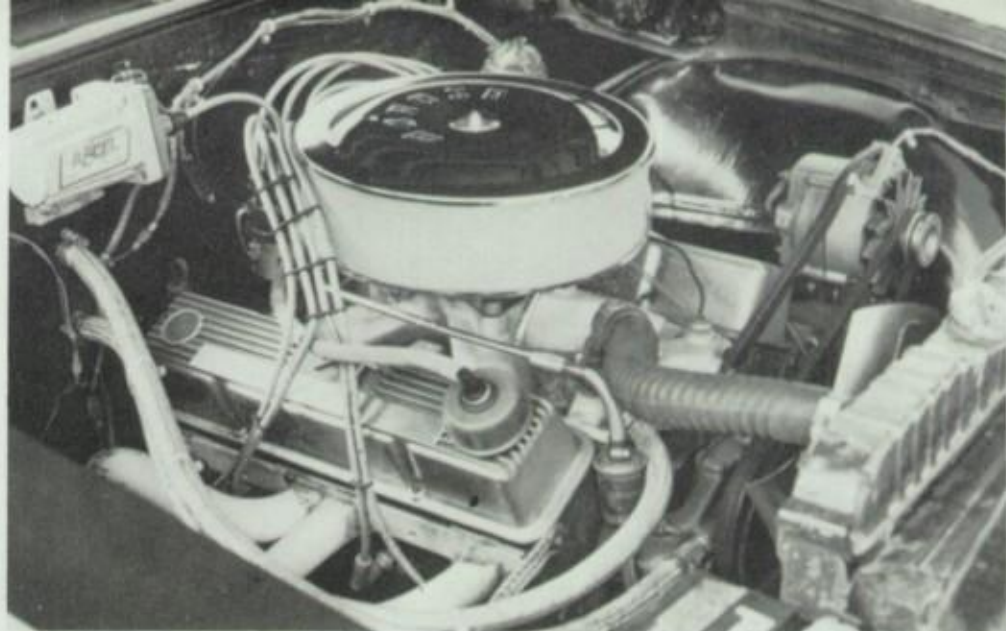

Hope I'll see you all very soon again, come by in Schleswig when you're in Germany. You're always welcome! I love you all!

California is rad and Homestead is bitchin' I'm so lucky I got to come here. I've met many neat friends, and I'm sure I'll never forget Homestead and California and the sun. P.S. Basketball is totally cool man. Thanks to coach "M".

The Year In Pictures

Our hostages were released after 444 days in captivity... John Lennon was slain by a madman... Registration for the draft was reinstated... The Mediterranean fruit fly plagued Santa Clara county... From the book the movie Shogun was aired, and heavily viewed by the nation... Jimmy Carter left his office to the new president Ronald Reagan Mt. Saint Helens occasionally vented some steam... The MGM hotel in Las Vegas was gutted by a fire... Southern Italy was hit by a devastating fire... The Oakland Raiders were the Superbowl champs... War broke out between Iraq and Iran... And there was unrest in El Salvador...

Who shot J.R. Ewing was the question asked by DALLAS fans... John Anderson showed up as a third party candidate... The Phillies won the World Series... Fixed gas prices were abolished... and who knows what is next?

One of K. Chin's sons at work at his Carmel gallery

Welcome to the K. Chin gallery located at 8 Bonnymead Court, Carmel by the Sea. K. Chin's pictures, two of which grace the pages of this yearbook, cover the walls of his small studio. His paintings vary from fantastic pictures of rainbows, unicorns, and dragons, to realistic pictures of owls, otters, houses, and butterflies.

K. Chin started painting when he was about 12, and without any formal training, went on to become a commercial artist. The paintings which he now sells were first painted as a hobby. He now is retired from commercial art, and sells, and paints these pictures full time. The pegasus staff extends a big thank-you to K. Chin for his generous loan of the pictures to the yearbook.
